

CALEB & JOSHUA GENERATION TRAINING

Winter 2012

Our vision is to raise up generations of leaders like Caleb and Joshua who live with wholehearted devotion to Jesus, embrace God's heart for Israel and its relationship to world revival, and are released to passionately pursue their calling and destiny guided by clear personal vision rooted in Biblical identity. We teach and train in community with everything birthed out of worship and prayer.

What Is Caleb & Joshua Generation Training?

Twelve weeks of intensive leadership training geared to “raising up and releasing Calebs & Joshuas”— radical men and women who are wholeheartedly devoted to the Lord all the days of their lives. Students receive an impartation of God’s heart for Israel and the nations, with an understanding of the prophetic time we are living in according to Scripture. Our heart is to equip kingdom influencers with the tools they need to change the world: lifestyle of intimacy where identity and vision are found, God’s heart for Israel and all nations, living life in authentic community with discipleship, cultivating a culture of worship and intercession, and spreading the love and power of Jesus.

How Do We Train?

CJLT utilizes a Hebraic teaching style much like Jesus used with His disciples, which focuses on applying Biblical truth rather than just acquiring it. There is a rabbinic blessing which says, “May you be covered in the dust of your rabbi,” conveying that the follower is closely behind their teacher. Models are more powerful than messages. We desire to model a spirit-filled, biblical lifestyle, and to accomplish this through relational teaching and mentoring. We engage in daily worship, prayer, and prophetic ministry.

Who Do We Train?

Those called to leadership, both young and old! Our goal is to equip influencers in every sphere of society: home, church and missions, government, business, education, media, and arts / entertainment.

When Do We Train?

Our 2012 winter school will begin January 9, and will finish April 5. There are three phases of the school: the Nashville phase, the Israel phase, and the “nations” phase.
